

Internship brand and trade marketing

We are looking for immediate support in various projects and offer placements in the following areas:

- Motivating and instructive training assignments in the area of sales and marketing
- An inspiring and proactive working environment
- Independent organisation and evaluation of subprojects
- Assistance of the responsible project manager and managing director
- Online support (website, Facebook, newsletters).

Are you currently enrolled as a guest student at Hamburg University? And did you begin your studies in China, Korea or Russia? Have you already completed a few semesters of economics (i.e. business administration, business psychology, communications) with a focus on marketing and would you like to participate in new projects from the »get-go«?

Ideally, you have previously mastered first experiences in the area of marketing. You're distinctly flexible, pro-active and independent. You're outgoing, creative and enthusiastic and your skillset includes communication, intercultural competence and proficient English.

We look forward to receiving your application credentials at: jobs@gobi-hamburg.com